

INDIANA “Highly Qualified” SUPPORT PROGRAMS

INSTITUTION	PROGRAM	DELIVERY SYSTEM	FULL OR PARTIAL	CONTACT OR WEBSITE LINK
Anderson University	Special Education Highly Qualified	On site at area schools	_____	gwrobinson@anderson.edu
Ball State University	Varied	Varied	Varied	http://www.bsu.edu/summer/ Individuals do not need to go through the Teacher Education Office to enroll in classes or workshops.
Indiana State University	Transition-to-Teaching	On site	_____	http://soe.indstate.edu/ess/T2T.htm
	Various professional development opportunities	Distance Educ.	Varied	http://www.indstate.edu/distance/education.html
Marian College	Science and Math	On site summer workshops	_____	http://sciencecamps.marian.edu/
WFYI TeacherLine	Through TeacherLine's unique model, teachers receive professional development customized to meet their state and local standards.	Online, Internet, and Video Conferencing	Full	Tammy Anderson, WFYI's TeacherLine Coordinator, can answer questions, demonstrate this service, or present at staff meetings. E-mail her at tanderson@wfyi.org , or call (317/715-2011). These courses are approved for Indiana CRU's. Graduate credit from Indiana University School of Education and Adams State College (Colorado/NCATE) may also be obtained.
University of Saint Francis	Dept. of Education—Educator’s Academy	On campus	_____	Nancy Hankee (nhankee@sf.edu) or (260) 434-3271 USF homepage:

INDIANA “Highly Qualified” SUPPORT PROGRAMS

	Courses offered: The Creative Classroom, Differentiated Instruction, Strategies for Struggling Readers, Exploring Critical Literacy in Elementary and Middle School Classrooms			https://campusweb.sf.edu/webschedule/main.asp
--	--	--	--	---